SKATES!

Moose Jaw has a very generous school board. At their meeting last night they gave Mr. Laycock the newly appointed teacher, $50 more salary than he asked for in his application.
The salary even yet, $550 is too small for a man with a wife and three children to live on in the Northwest. We fall to see the wisdom of their action in inducing a man with a family to come 2000 miles to accept a situation at that salary, when it appears to be the policy of the board to change teachers every year. The public would also like to be enlightened as to the reasons for Mr. Laycock's dismissal.
There must be reasons, and the ratepayers and parents should know what they are. Mr. Laycock may be a fine man, but as a teacher Mr. Laycock is not. Under the circumstances, Mr.
Laycock's dismissal was the sensible view of the situation.

THE HERD ORDINANCE

Notice has been given in the Legislative Assembly, of a motion to amend the Herd Ordinance. The law on this matter sadly needs changing and when it comes up for discussion in Committee we hope to see such changes made as shall meet the needs and wishes of the settlers in the country. The time in which the Herd Ordinance shall be in force should be extended over the whole year. At the present season of the year farmers having stacks of grain scattered through their fields waiting for the threshers are put to great trouble and annoyance by their neighbors stray cattle. The only redress at present is a civil suit for damages which is tedious and expensive. The question demands the careful attention of the Assembly.

LET'S TALK ABOUT THE WEATHER!

Could anything be finer or more pleasant than the weather in the Canadian North West, since the first of December. While our friends in Manitoba and the Western States have been buried deep in snowbanks, and have had much ado to keep themselves from freezing to death, we have been enjoying a delightful winter weather. As yet there is very little snow throughout this district. The farmers are having in their grain on the open plains, in some places, and during the day time the air feels much as it does in the early autumn. There is a dryness and a sparkle in our North West air at this season of the year which is invigorating to both old and young, quickening the circulation and making life a joy to the tips of the extremities. We believe this is the best climate under the sun at some points of a large, vigorous northern race, a race similar to the people of these hardy races of the north, which in the fifth century swept down on the enervated voluptuous races of Southern Europe, sweeping away the vices and oppression of a corrupt civilization. To return: The days are very short—about eight hours of sunlight at this season, but the nights are so clear and the stars so bright that the darkness is as clear as day. To add to the lustre of the firmament, the northern lights, like beacons from the northern regions of ice and snow. During December and January the Aurora Borealis are very bright and sometimes extend over more than half the heavens.
The faded tinges of light about the horizon, the clear sky forming a picture incredibly grand and sublime.

The more truth is told about our North West climate, the more the country will be appreciated by the outside world.

LOCAL WHEAT SITUATION.

The railway situation continued the one feature of absorbing interest in grain circles during the week. The Canadian Pacific announced that they would again open North Bay as an order point, but only for cars of grain destined for eastern Canada points.
Dealers were required to make an agreement to this effect, that cars billed on orders to North Bay, would not be for export. This of course only covers a very small shipment, as Manitoba shippers are not doing much business in eastern Canada this year. Correspondence was passing between the Winnipeg Grain exchange and local grain men on the one hand and the West Shore railway on the other, regarding the shipment of Manitoba grain through to New York. The West Shore people stated that as soon as the blockade at their terminal at New York was cleared away, (which they hoped would be in a very few days) they would again be prepared to handle Manitoba wheat, but they would only accept two grades. This was considered at a meeting of the Winnipeg exchange, and the grades of No. 1 and No. 2 regular were selected as the qualities for shipment via New York.
Later, through further communication with the exchange the West Shore people agreed to accept three grades and it is expected that No. 3 regular will be named by the exchange, at a meeting called for Dec. 21, as the third grade to go to New York. These three grades cover the bulk of the stuff which goes for export, as the qualities above No. 1 regular are, being taken largely by local millers, and any not so taken will go into store at Fort William. The inferior qualities of wheat classified as Nos. 1, 2 and 3 regular, are the grades most desirable to get out of the country during the winter. Higher grades, if not all wanted for domestic milling, or a very well be held in store until spring. There remains of course rejected and no grade stuff to dispose of. Some of this is going to Eastern Canada, and other portion of these quantities may be made up in round lots for export. The route to Boston is still open for Manitoba shippers who wish to undertake direct export business. The West Shore will not accept wheat billed through for direct export, but only billed to New York, the reason no doubt being that there might be delay in securing ocean space for direct export stuff.

Cars of grain, as they are shipped daily from the various country points will be inspected at Winnipeg, and the three grades agreed to be handled by the West Shore, will go right on to New York. Cars inspecting other grades will go on to Fort William, where they will be unloaded into store, unless in the meantime they are ordered elsewhere by the shipper. In straight export shipment lots, no doubt the West Shore will receive consignments of any grade, after they get over the rush. In fact it is said they have been receiving consignments from some shippers right along, and their action in unaccepting their refusal to receive further consignments of Canadian grain, is said to have been taken to prevent the promiscuous shipments of straw-ling lots, for the disposal at New York of which no proper arrangements had been made by the shipper. Delicacies of wheat in Manitoba country markets have been in fair quantity, though light at some points. In the west there is little or no snow, and delicacies are better. In the east and south, where the snow fell heavily during the storm of two weeks ago, there has been difficulty in continuing threshing, owing to the snow being driven into the stacks. This shows up in the wheat in the form of patches of ice, and buyers will not handle it, as it would do much to soil the wheat. On this account considerable wheat will have to remain in stack till this is thawed and dried out. Another week of very fine and mild weather has been experienced, thawing some through the days, but not sufficient to dry out the stacks. If it had not been for this bright weather, the last two weeks would have been splendid threshing weather. Prices continue about the same. For hard wheat, millers are paying higher prices at some points than export buyers can touch. At a few points 70c per bushel and over is paid to farmers for good hard wheat, but at some points the range for No. 2 hard or better, is from 62 to 70c; No. 3 hard from 55 to 60c; No. 1 northern, 65c; No. 2 northern, 61 to 62c; No. 1 regular 50c; No. 2 regular 40 to 45c; No. 3 regular 35c. These prices vary somewhat at different points. Stocks in store at Fort William on Dec. 10 were 579,129 bushels, an increase of 65,292 bushels for the week. The ment to the "Herd Ordinance." 2. Mr. J. J. Beaman—to ask leave to introduce 1891, on the basis of the present Ordinance.

lowing be a committee to prepare and bring in liquors and the issue of licenses therefor, viz: Messrs. Clinkskill, Neff, Tweed, Hant and Cayley.

THE FIRST DISCUSSION.

On the adjournment being moved, Dr.
Brett rose and said he wished to make a word of explanation with regard to the possition of the old Advisory Council. This had become necessary on account of a misapprehension which appeared to exist in the minds of some persons. The facts were that the members of the old Advisory Council were simply members of the Assembly, and that the Assembly ceased to exist on June 30th last. The Advisory Council also ceased to exist. He had hoped that a full account of the position they occupied, under the new Act. In the past serious difficulties had arisen, and in the present Act he could see the elements of difficulty. For his part he was desirous of doing everything possible to make matters run smoothly. As the Act stood, an Advisory Council still existed, although this was not the intention of the Government. As the Act stood, it left it open for trouble. If His Honour chose to exercise his prerogative he could select an Advisory Council the same as under the old Act. It would be a good thing to have a definite understanding between the Assembly and His Honour and to save all needless brawl.

HOUSE ADJOURNED.

Mr. Oliver asked if the hon. gentleman wished the House to vote contrary to the N. W. Act.
Mr. Brett said he did not.
Mr. Oliver said in his opinion it was not the privilege of the Assembly to take any other course than that laid down for them in the Act. If the legislatures at Ottawa had through inadvertence left an important clause in the Act which they ought to have repealed, the Assembly must suffer the consequences. He was in favour of discussing the question, in the House, and not in the streets. He thought that the hon. gentlemen who had spoken were not one to whom they could look to act harmoniously with in the Assembly. He thought they ought to be very careful in attempting to throw aside the most important clause in the whole Act. He said that any threats that might be made to the House would be strongly resented.

HOUSE ADJOURNED.

Mr. Brett thought the point raised by the hon. gentleman from Red Deer was well taken. The section did exist and was most important and it was their duty to discuss the difficulty. Perhaps the House could select four men as a working committee, or small government, whom His Honour would accept as his advisers. Should His Honour accept them, it would be to his credit, and the advantage of the country. He thought four men could be selected who would be thoroughly able and willing to advise His Honour.
House adjourned.

POSITION OF THE ADVISORY COUNCIL.
The House stood while Mr. Clerk of the Assembly Gordon, read a letter from His Honour enclosing a report of the Advisory Council, and a long and important letter from the Deputy Minister of Justice, giving an opinion as to the difficulty caused by Sec. 12 of the Act of 1887, creating the Advisory Council, not having been repealed. Mr. Speaker's report was extremely exhaustive in scope and minute in detail, but the sum and substance of it is contained in a couple of pa-graphs under the end.
He advances the statement, In reference to the status of the present Advisory Council, that the personnel of such Council is not necessarily affected by the dissolution of the Assembly or even by the defeat at the polls of any of its members.
The members of the Council hold office during pleasure until their successors are appointed.
The letter goes on to say that under ordinary circumstances the duty of the Lieut.
Governor would be to see that the members of his Council were, or were likely to be, clever men, and of high character.
It also states that the Act of 1887, creating the Advisory Council, was not repealed by the present Act, and that the power of appointing and dismissing the members of the Council, was given to the Lieutenant Governor by the present Act.
The resolution was carried in the following words, which were heard with cheers by the members.
"His Honour desires to announce to the Assembly that in view of the opinion expressed by Deputy Minister of Justice in the correspondence referred to, it is not His Honour's intention to appoint an advisory Council unless such appointment should, in the opinion of the Assembly, become necessary in order to enable it to effectively exercise the powers conferred upon it." Should such an opinion be expressed by the Assembly, His Honour will be glad to accede to it in the matter of such appointment.
"GOVERNMENT HOUSE."
December 15, 1891.
ROYAL TEMPLAR FRATERNITY Mr. Lineham presented a petition from the Royal Templar Fraternity, and Mr.
Tweed of Medicine Hat, asking for prohibition.
MEMORANDUM PAPERS
Mr. Lineham presented the Memorandum Committee made an recommendation on the subject of papers granted on the C. P. R., for immigration purposes.
The committee recommended, according to Mr. N. Kay, expatiating on the good results which had sprung from the issue of such papers in previous years, and asking the C. P.
R. to continue the practice this year, and as the winter months were the most favorable for good immigration work, that the C. P. R. be requested to grant the papers at once. Carried.
Mr. Beaman introduced a bill to repeal the Poisons Amending Ordinance No. 2 of 1888.
REGINA, Dec. 18.—This afternoon was another short session, only a few minutes having elapsed between the reading of the minutes by Mr.

Gordon and the moving of the adjournment by Mr. Beaman.

The petition of W. H. Wrigley, presented yesterday by Mr. Cayley, was received on the recommendation of Mr. Hamilton, chairman of the standards and library committee.

Mr. McGrath moved that a special committee consisting of Messrs. Cayley, Hamilton, Tweed, Lineham and McGrath be appointed to require into the report upon the advisability of memorializing the Dominion Government on the question of irrigation.
He said he had selected those gentlemen because they represented district, where irrigation was more or less necessary.

Mr. McKay introduced his bill to amend the medical ordinance, and it was read a first time.

Mr. J. J. dropped his motion.

Mr. Beaman introduced a bill to amend and consolidate the fence ordinances, which received its first reading.

Mr. Nowat dropped his notice concerning a bill to amend the school ordinance, the matter being before the educational committee.

On motion the names of Messrs.
Mitchell and McKay were added to the educational committee.

The House then adjourned.

Boulanger Suicides at His Mistress' Grave.

ONCE THE IDOL OF THE FRENCH NATION.

Broken in Health and Fortune, He Took His Own Life.

On Wednesday last Gen. Boulanger committed suicide at the tomb of his late mistress, Madame de Bonnemais.

For suicide in France, took place about noon. He stood alone by the grave of his mistress for some time, appearing to be deeply affected by sorrowful recollections.

An attendant, who had respectfully remained at some distance, suddenly heard a sharp report. Hastening to the spot he found Boulanger lying dead upon the ground with a revolver clenched in his right hand.

A hasty examination of the body showed that he had placed the weapon to his right ear and fired it. The bullet entered the head and passed through the brain.

At the time of his death, Boulanger was in the last stages of a nervous breakdown. He had been in the hospital for some time, and his health was rapidly declining.

His death was a great loss to the French nation, which had once looked upon him as its savior. He had been a man of great energy and vision, and his fall was a tragedy.

THE BOOTBLACKS OF A GREAT CITY.

Now They Put in the Time—Be Game Was Swift and Cruel.

The newboys and bootblacks of Toronto are a deal game sport. When they are not about the city, they are in the big warehouses and there in their own little Monte Carlo they "play de game" with the shrewdness of old timers.

Of course there are sharks among these juvenile sports, sharpers who have retired from legitimate business, and who spend their time in luring "new boys" into a trap.

It is not a few weeks only and who are not in it when they try their hand with these game boys. They hunt the down town lanes, the docks, vacant buildings, and other retrograde where they are safe from visits from the police, and the whole tribe is proud of the reputation of some of its members for handling the cards.

CORRY IS A COO-COO. "I tell yer, der cent a man in dis town dat canny Corry's pockets, if de game is straight," said an enthusiastic onlooker to a friend.

TOWN and COUNTRY.

Miss Ida McMillan left on Sunday morning for a visit to Ontario.

A carnival will be held in the rink on New Year's night.

Mrs. John A. Hill is spending the winter with friends in Bracebridge, Ont.

Last Tuesday was the shortest day of the year. From now onward the days will gradually lengthen out.

Mr. Fowler, late C. P. R. agent at Regina, has been appointed travelling auditor for the company.

Santa Claus could never make a mistake. Whatever is good he sets at the foot of the stocking.

Remember the entertainment at Campbell's Hall tonight (Friday), in connection with the Methodist Sunday School.

The skating rink is the centre of attraction in the evening. The ice is in good condition.

Farmers! Insure your grain and granaries tonight. Very low rates, short terms. The strongest companies doing business in Canada, as per government report. See your Green agent.

Mr. S. McMillan, one of the injured in the recent fire, is now pleased to see able to be out again.

Messrs. Cavan & McAlbee have received an offer of $4000 for their race horses, Grey Eagle and Melina.

Don't buy your best girl a present until you see her before you had made all the payments.

An exchange says: the best moral support a man can give a newspaper is to subscribe for it and keep his subscription paid up.

The congregation of the Church of St. John the Baptist have leased Russell hall for their services during the winter until the church is repaired.

The scholars of the Methodist Sunday School have a party on Saturday night. Don't fail to see R. Campbell's Hall, at 11:30 o'clock.

Mr. W. B. Crossie, manager of Saturday & Moore's Bank here left on Saturday morning for Calgary, where he will have the management of the head office of the firm for a month. Mr. G. W. Lafferty, general manager, will spend a month in Moose Jaw.

Nov. officers arrived last week, for the Salvation Army and they opened their offices on the town on Saturday night. The three young lady officers are good singers and speakers and will, no doubt, meet with more success than their predecessors.

Tax Collector J. E. Annable, has started on the new year, prepared for business. The rate this year is 17 mills in the dollar for school purposes. The council has decided to use up the money now in the treasury for municipal expenses and have levied no tax for municipal purposes.

The town council will before they meet from office, pass a by-law establishing a fire limit of blocks 110, 111, 124, 125, in which no buildings other than brick, stone or concrete may be erected. This act will commend itself to the approval of all having the interest of the town at heart.

Some fifty-five representatives men of the Macleod district, sat down to a banquet in the town hall, Macleod, on Tuesday evening given in honor of Mr. A. R. Springett, who has resigned his position as Indian agent at the Peace River, and is about to leave Northern Alberta. Col. Macleod presided. Messrs. Pocklington and Brown occupied vice chairs.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church held a very successful bazaar and supper in Russell Hall on Tuesday evening last. An excellent supper was provided by the ladies from 8 o'clock, after which the sale of the season's work took place. The articles were more numerous and of more excellent quality than in previous years, and found ready sale. A good sum of money was netted.

The Board of Works of the town council should at once take steps to have the burned sidewalk on the west side of Main street repaired. Mr. Chalmers complains to us that if not done soon it will have a tendency to injure his business, and considering the fact that his stone store played in the fire, he should not be made suffer in this way. This sidewalk must be repaired sometime and it might as well be done now as at any future time, and in justice it should be done.

WE GREET YOU AGAIN !

There are now four candidates in the field for the Toronto mayoralty, viz. E. B. Osler, James Beatty, R. J. Fleming and John MacMillan. The Empire supports Osler, the Globe, Fleming, and the Mail, MacMillan. Beatty is running on his own hook and will poll a large vote. He was Mayor of Toronto ten years ago.

Mr. C. A. Gass, has made a very handsome Christmas present to the new Presbyterian Church Manse, in the shape of one of Burrow, Stewart & Milne's improved furnace worth $100. The furnace was purchased from Mr. Jno. Brass, and is a handsome and complete heating appliance.

Writing or printing is like shooting at a mark with a rifle, you may reach the reader's mind or miss it; but talking is like playing at a mark with the pipe and fire engine—you can't help hitting it. Therefore write your advertisements as you might talk. Talk to please customers, anticipate their objections and speak of your wares as though face to face instead of through printer's ink.—Inland Printer.

Rev. Dr. Stafford, a well known and popular divine of the Methodist Church, died on Monday last at Hamilton, Ontario. Dr. Stafford was one of the ablest preachers in the Church and filled some of the best pulpits in the country. He lectured in Moose Jaw about five years ago on "The Universal Boy." His death is a great loss to the Methodist Church.

In connection with the protest lodged against the return of Mr. Nolin, of Batoche, it is claimed by Boncher, his opponent, that various irregularities were practised by a deputy returning officer. It is said the poll was opened much earlier than the stipulated hour; also that the poll book was carried to a man in lost unable to appear at poll, and his vote recorded. This is said to have occurred at the polling division of Grandin.

There are just as many millions of wealth lying buried under the green grasses of the Northwest as there was ten years ago. Millions of acres still awaiting to be cultivated by the plow that it may cash in with bounty. Whether it be to raise wheat on the level plains of the Red River valley or grow sheep, cattle and horses on the western ranches, there is still room for and wealth awaiting the men and women who prefer labor and honest independence to idleness and pauperism. The hour is auspicious. The hand on the clock is fast points to the hour of prosperity high 12. Come to the bounteous feast at the call of the Northwest—dinner horn.—Western World.

Glencoe Council No. 9 R. T. of T. Moose Jaw has adopted the following resolution:—

Resolved that this Council of Royal Templars of Temperance recognizing that the liquor traffic is fraught with serious peril to the moral and material welfare of the community; that the permit system now in operation has been productive of incalculable evil and that license laws wherever in force have utterly failed to mitigate this terrible curse, and that prohibition is universally recognized as the only system sound in principle and likely to result in real benefit, having been declared by votes of different Provincial Legislatures by an overwhelming majority of the Dominion House of Commons and by the representative bodies of nearly every church organization that has considered the question, and that therefore in the interest of all that is good and right and true we earnestly appeal to the North West Legislative Assembly to immediately abolish the present system of permitting or encouraging the sale of liquor, also to steadfastly reject any proposal to use the liquor traffic in the North West Territories, but instead to enact such legislation as will secure the thorough enforcement of total prohibition, and that a copy of this resolution be placed in the hands of the local member for this district to place before the North West Legislature.

Card of Thanks.

To the Editor of the TIMES.

Please allow me through the columns of your paper to express my appreciation of, and thankfulness for the kind assistance given me by the people of Moose Jaw, who subscribed so liberally, to again establish me in business after the late fire. I lost all I had in the world, myself and family barely escaping from the burning building with our lives, and the assistance given by kind friends is doubly appreciated. May the blessing of Providence follow those who have been friends to us in our need.
